THE STORY OF FIGARO

Figaro was born in the tiny town of Moltodelicioso, Italy, to a family of opera singers. As a boy, Figaro could do more than sing beautiful arias; he could make the best pizzas in town, too. All day long, he twirled dough high across his "canvas." He would choose meats, fresh veggies, real into the air, and deftly brushed sauce sing as he layered his pizzas with Italian spices, and creamy mozzarella.

People flocked from all over to see and hear the young man who made beautiful music and delicious pizzas. When asked why he sang, he noted the local opera's strict ban on food, and exclaimed "If I can't bring the pizza to the opera, I can bring the opera to the pizza!" Today, whether we bake your pizza here or you take it home to bake, you'll always find the "flavors that sing" in every bite.

Testimonials

"Awesome pizza" – Joy K.

"We had your G-free pizza tonight. The best I have ever had. In years. We would by a large, for sure. Thank you!" – Crystal B.

"My favorite thing about Figaro's is that I don't have to cook. Fridays are Figgy days!" – Tina D.

"I love Figaro's pizza, because it tastes fresh. I feel like I am eating gourmet for a reasonable price!" – Jocelyn M.
